Fraud: another Iraq soldier wants to send you money

As news spreads of convictions of US soldiers convicted of a variety of financial offences in Iraq, spam-scammers are once more using the familiarity such stories bring to the news headlines as a means of snaring victims in advance fee fraud and similar offences. The latest, currently being blasted to millions of addresses is simpler than most.

This is it - don't be fooled. It's a trap.

?????????????????????????????? obahalamu00000000000000000000112@yahoo.co.jp

Attn:Sir/Madam,

I'm Sgt. Irvin Brown, a U.S. Army now on tour of duty in Northern Iraq. I'm in desperate need of your assistance to help me receive US$8M in your home. Please respond for further details.email:sgtirvin_brown_2010@yahoo.co.jp

Sincerely,

Sgt. Irvinbrown

- Irvin Brown